RENO, Nev. (News 4 & Fox 11) — State leaders will be at Bishop Manogue High School Tuesday, May 31st to address questions of Nevada's proposed Education Savings Accounts. The voucher-style program approved last year by state lawmakers allows parents to claim their child's per-pupil state education funds and use it toward private schooling.

Tuesday night's event is open to the public will host three State experts who plan to share the latest news and information about the proposed program.

State experts include:

Grant Hewitt, Chief of Staff, Nevada state Treasurer's Office

Donna Wix, Private & Charter School Education Program Professional

Joseph Tartakovsky, Deputy Solicitor General, Nevada Attorney General's Office

After the event, parents, teachers and other attendees will have the opportunity to fill out an application for the Education Savings Account, or apply for the Nevada Choice Scholarship Program.

Event Details:

When: Tuesday, May 31st

Where: Bishop Manogue Catholic High School in the small gym
110 Bishop Manogue Dr.

Time: 6 p.m.

The battle over Nevada' proposed Education Saving's Accounts continues to heat up. Two lawsuits have been filed against Nevada's sweeping new school choice program. One of those lawsuits was dismissed early this month.
