

PROGRAM MISSION

Our mission is to teach the skills of tennis that build the character strengths of our participants for a lifetime of success.

South Reno Tennis offers a comprehensive junior tennis program for players who want to advance their skills. Players will need to work hard on and off the court to improve their technical and mental capabilities that will ultimately enhance their match play.

SOUTH RENO TENNIS JUNIOR SUMMER CAMPS

Play Top Level Tennis

Juniors who wish to participate at the top level of high school and tournament play require as much time on the tennis court as possible. Our program is designed to provide the best guidance available for kids to learn and have fun in a competitive environment so they can develop their skills as quickly as possible.

TECHNICAL

Players will learn correct technique and develop proper stroke production.

MENTAL

Develop a mindset that is conducive to competitive tournament match play.

TACTICAL

Learn and understand strategies that can make a difference between winning and losing matches.

MEET THE SOUTH RENO TENNIS PROFESSIONALS

John, Jason and Evan have been involved with junior tennis for over 20+ years. Their experience comes from working with numerous ranked juniors who have gone on to play tennis at the highest levels.

JOHN MATKULAK

(775) 409-6500
john@southrenotennis

John taught at the world renowned Harry Hopman's International Tennis Academy in Florida. After competing at the division 1 level at UNR, John has been involved in teaching tennis since the early 1980's. His expertise lies not only with the technical aspects of the game but also with psychological performance. While in college and on the pro tour, John had the privilege of working with well known sport Psychologist Gary Beale in relaying peak performance training techniques to the game of tennis. As a player John was ranked top 10 throughout his junior career in Australia before coming over to play at the UNR. He was #1 singles and doubles player and team captain in 1986. John has also competed internationally on the Professional Satellite Tour.

JASON YELLEY

(775) 287-4157
jason@southrenotennis

Jason made his way to Reno from Texas where he was regional doubles champion and third in the state. He competed in USTA tournaments as a junior throughout Texas and made it in the top 50 in the Super Champion Division. He then played at the University of Nevada as #1 doubles and #3 singles. In 2004, Jason became certified with the USPTA and was the UNR assistant coach of the women's team. Shortly afterwards he started coaching full time at Lakeridge Tennis Club. During his 18 year term there he competed on a USTA 5.0 travelling team and has attended several district championships. Additionally, Jason was recently awarded High School Coach of the Year for Woman's Tennis in Northern Nevada.

EVAN BROWN

(775) 722-9805
evan@southrenotennis

Evan Brown, a U.S. Professional Tennis Association certified coach, has been teaching tennis for more than ten years. He is a former CUNYAC tennis player for Baruch College in New York. Known for his seriousness of purpose and commitment to help his students reach their potential, Evan has been commended by his students for his high level of enthusiasm, dedication, and personalization of approach. Lately he has become the head coach of the Reed HS boys tennis team where they posted a winning season, he plans to continue the teams success in 2018.
